

Professor He Jingjing: Foreign Investment in China

Professor He Jingjing, an associate research fellow at CASS Institute of International Law, was interviewed by China Global Television Network (CGTN) on foreign investment in China on August 19, 2019. In the interview, Professor He discussed the recent adoption of the Foreign Investment Law and series of other measures taken by the Chinese Government to further deepening the opening-up to the outside world and improving investment environment and their impact on foreign investment in China. The following is a video link to the interview:

http://iolaw.cssn.cn/rdsp/201908/t20190821_4960177.shtml.